

TeenPub.

A Newsletter Created by Teens and Just for Teens

What is TeenPub?

TeenPub. is a newsletter written by teens, grades 6-12, and just for teens. This newsletter will be handed out monthly. It is funded and supported by the Palos Verdes Library District.

What to Submit?

Currently, there are no specific topics we are looking for. You may submit anything, from editorials to photography. Some examples include the following: opinions, quotations, short stories, book/movie reviews, poetry, and photos! Please be appropriate with the contents of your submissions.

How Do I Submit?

All submissions, with allowance of photos and drawings, should be typed and easy to read. Submissions should be black and white, with few exceptions. Please fill in a submission form and neatly staple it to your compositions. Once you turn in your submission, it will not be returned.

Where to Submit?

Please submit all submissions, comments, etc. into the TeenPub. submission box, located at the Young Reader's Desk or the PVPHS library. You may also email it to TeenPub@yahoo.com

Then What?

After we receive your submissions, we will edit it and make any necessary corrections. Then, we will send an email back about the status of your submission and whether it will be published or not. You should receive an email about your submission within 1 month.

If you have any additional questions or need tips, please feel free to contact the group at TeenPub@yahoo.com. You can also submit any of your comments in the submission box.
